

BUMBLEBEES

Valentin Kopp, Francesco Fabris, Nicolò Tamà, Emanuel Kopp, Andrea Piffaretti

Space, some dream of it, some fear it. And then there are the Bumblebees who dig into it, always searching for new psychedelic textures. Born in Lugano but based in Zurich, the five-piece group draws their influences both from '60s-'70s music and from contemporary artists, with a modern approach to their compositions and soundscape. Their passion for psychedelic buzz and dreamy vibes, creates an atmosphere that tempts each listener: guitar dialogs and floating synths, hold together by a vibrant rhythm section, are inviting everybody to follow them into their space shuttle to explore unknown destinations.

“À mi-chemin entre Tame Impala, Temples et Pink Floyd, on embarque dans leur petite embarcation direction la rivière d'étoiles. Mention spéciale à 'Above the ocean', 'Nowhere' [...] et 'Clowns are crying', qui s'ouvre comme une fleur.”

Frederic Saenger, Daily Rock, 17.06.2019
